

PHILIPPIANS PRAYER

Below is the prayer that Paul prays for the believers in Philippi. It can be found in it Philippians 1:9-11. We will learn more about this prayer in Week 2 of the study. Please make it a daily practice to pray this prayer for yourself and other believers as we study this book. You will be praying a prayer that is more than 2000 years old that is inspired by the Holy Spirit.

For yourself...

Dear God,

May my love abound more and more with knowledge and full discernment; so that I may choose the things that are excellent, so that in the day of Christ I may be sincere and blameless, being filled with the fruits of righteousness that come through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

Amen

For other believers...

Dear God,

May <insert name>'s love abound more and more with knowledge and full discernment; so that he/she may choose the things that are excellent, so that in the day of Christ he/she may be sincere and blameless, being filled with the fruits of righteousness that come through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

Amen
